3. SHANNA CARTER-ZANDERS,
4. KOHREY LEE BRIDGES,
5. ANTHONY MCQUEEN, and
6. MEGHAN FRAZIER,

Defendants.

NO. CR24-122-JNW

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Upon the unopposed motion of the United States, and the Court being advised as to the nature of this case and having considered the record and files herein, the Court finds there is good cause to grant the motion and:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that discovery materials discussed in the Motion for a Protective Order and referred to therein as “Protected Material,” marked specially as “Protected Material,” may be produced to counsel for the defendants in this case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defense counsel shall not provide Protected Material or copies thereof to any other person outside his or her law office, including the

1 defendants or their family or associates. A defendant residing at the Federal Detention 2 Center (“FDC”) is permitted to review the Protected Material, consistent with the 3 regulations established by the Bureau of Prisons, with or without counsel in a controlled
4 environment at the FDC, but is prohibited from printing out, copying, or otherwise 5 disseminating the discovery. Defendants on pretrial release are permitted to review the 6 Protected Material at the offices of their counsel, but are prohibited from printing out, 7 copying, or disseminating the discovery.

8 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the defendants, defense counsel, and 9 others to whom disclosure of the content of the Protected Material may be necessary to 10 assist with the preparation of the defense (including members of the defense team such as 11 investigators, paralegals, law clerks, experts, and assistants), shall not disclose the 12 Protected Material or its contents, other than as necessary for the preparation of defenses
13 at trial and in subsequent appellate proceedings, if necessary. Specifically, the attorneys 14 of record and members of the defense team acknowledge that providing copies of the 15 Protected Material to the defendants and other persons is prohibited, and agree not to 16 duplicate or provide copies of the Protected Material to the defendants and other persons.
17 This order does not limit employees of the United States Attorney’s Office for the 18 Western District of Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to members of the 19 United States Attorney’s Office, federal law enforcement agencies, the Court, or 20 witnesses in order to pursue other investigations or the prosecution in this case. Nor does 21 it limit employees of the United States Attorney’s Office for the Western District of 22 Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to the defense as necessary to comply 23 with the government’s discovery obligations.

24 Nothing in this Protective Order prohibits each defense counsel from showing the 25 Protected Material, or reviewing its contents, with his or her respective defendant or with 26 others to whom disclosure may be necessary to assist with the preparation of the defense 27 at trial and in subsequent appellate proceedings, if necessary.

1 Further, upon written agreement with counsel for the government, members of a 2 defense team may provide copies of specific Protected Material, or redacted versions of 3 such material, to a defendant. When seeking the government's agreement to give such a 4 copy to a defendant, members of the defense team will identify with reasonable 5 particularity (including, where available, the specific Bates-numbered pages and/or 6 recording descriptions) the specific material defense counsel proposes to give to the 7 defendant. Unless expressly stated otherwise by the government, copies of Protected 8 Material to be provided to the defendant will continue to be Protected Material subject to 9 all of the protections of the Court's Order, with the sole exception that a copy can be 10 given only to the defendant (and not shared with anyone else outside the defense team).
11 If counsel for the government and counsel for the defendant cannot reach agreement on 12 whether particular portions of the Protected Material or redacted versions of Protected 13 Material should be given to a defendant under these conditions, defense counsel may 14 raise the issue with the Court by way of a motion.

15 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if counsel for any party finds it necessary to file 16 any documents marked as Protected Material, the material shall be filed under seal with 17 the Court.

18 Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from seeking modification of this 19 Protective Order or from objecting to discovery that it believes to be otherwise improper.
20 The parties agree that in the event that compliance with this Order makes it difficult for 21 defense counsel to adhere to their Sixth Amendment obligations, or otherwise imposes an 22 unworkable burden on counsel, defense counsel shall bring any concerns about the terms
23 of the Order to the attention of the government. The parties shall then meet and confer
24 with the intention of finding a mutually acceptable solution. In the event that the parties 25 cannot reach such a solution, defense counsel shall have the right to bring any concerns
26 about the scope or terms of the Order to the attention of the Court by way of a motion.
27

1 Nothing in this Order should be construed as imposing any discovery obligations
2 on the government that are different from those imposed by case law and Rule 16 of the 3 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The failure to designate any materials as provided 4 in paragraph 2, above, shall not constitute a waiver of a party's assertion that the 5 materials are covered by this Protective Order.

6 This Protective Order does not constitute a ruling on the question of whether any 7 particular material is properly discoverable or admissible and does not constitute any 8 ruling on any potential objection to the discoverability of any material.

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that at the conclusion of the case, the Protected
10 Material shall be returned to the United States, or destroyed, or otherwise stored in a 11 manner to ensure that it is not subsequently duplicated or disseminated in violation of this 12 Protective Order.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the provisions of this Order shall not terminate 14 at the conclusion of this prosecution.

16 DATED this 29th day of August, 2024.
